

East Kentucky Correspondence News You Get Nowhere Else

No correspondence published unless signed in full by the writer. The name is not for publication, but as an evidence of good faith. Write plainly.

Jackson County News

McKee

McKee, Jan. 5.—Glory be! Jackson county is going to have a pike at last. On December 23 a vote was taken to decide whether this county was to have good roads, and the vote was 848 for a pike and 211 against it. —Magistrates Jerry York and Smith and Judge Johnson were selected to go to Frankfort to get information from the Road Commissioner as to how to proceed in the building of roads. —L. Morris who has been in Hamilton, Ohio for several weeks, came home yesterday very sick with measles. —Married on New Year's, Miss Rosetta Linnhart to Claud Mallico. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tyra Linnhart, of this place; the groom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Gabbard, of Hurley, where he has made his home for several years. May joy and happiness be theirs all thru life. —Susie Watson's school will close Wednesday with a nice entertainment. The people regret very much to give Miss Watson up, as she is a splendid teacher. —Lewis Cunningham and family, from Moores Creek have moved to town; they moved in the house recently occupied by John Hunley. —Mary Little's house caught fire the other day. The fire was discovered before it gained headway. —Mrs. Mary Davis has been sick for several days. —Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hill, from Pennsylvania are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Mabel Hornsby. —Roy Hornsby, who has been visiting his brother, Dr. W. B. Hornsby, left last Tuesday for Michigan, where he expects to get a position. —The McKee Sunday-school elected officers today. Alfred Truett was reelected Superintendent and H. F. Minter, Assistant Superintendent. Mrs. Emily Minter was reelected as Secretary and Mrs. Fannie Sparks as Assistant Secretary. —Lloyd and Sula Llewellyn visited at Mr. Walker's last Saturday and Sunday.

Parrot

Parrot, Jan. 4.—Lewis Cunagin of Parrot has moved to McKee to make his home. —Curt Steel has bought the Lewis Cunagin farm from W. H. Wolfe for $950. Mr. Wolfe plans to go to Indiana, where he has bought a farm. —Mrs. Lucy Summers of Middle Fork spent Christmas with home folks at this place. —Jesse Gabbard moved, last week, to his home near the mouth of Black Lick. —Richard Price went to Lexington last week to sell his tobacco. Only a few crops in this part have been sold. —Mrs. Rachel Price left for Hamilton, Ohio, last Thursday. She had previously received a telegram that her little granddaughter, Dorothy Cole, was seriously ill. —Richard Price is selling out to go to Camden, Ohio. —The Parrot postoffice is now kept by Clark Cunagin and Bert McDowell. —A bad accident occurred at Henry Riley's last Sunday evening when his little boys and another little neighbor boy took the shot gun out to kill some birds. They accidentally shot a smaller Riley boy through the arm. He is getting along very well at present. —Uncle Dan Parker is suffering greatly with a sore foot.

CLARK COUNTY

Log Lick

Log Lick, Jan. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Rice were blessed, December 29, by the arrival of their first little daughter, which they named Mabel. —J. W. Dawson and wife, of Fairfield, visited Dr. A. T. Neal and wife a few days of last week. —Mrs. Florence Kerr died this morning of tuberculosis and will be buried at 11 o'clock in the morning in Log Lick cemetery. The funeral will be preached by the Rev. M. P. Lowry, of Winchester. She had been a sufferer for several years. She leaves a husband and five children. —She was a good Christian woman. —J. W. Bush had his sale yesterday. Everything sold well. He and his family will move to Iowa. —Most of the sick are convalescent in this part at this time. —Miss Laura Matherly went to Winchester ter yesterday for a few days' visit to her brother and sister. —J. H. Dawson and family left January 1st for Knox City, Mo., to make that their future home. —Willie Henderson passed thru here last Thursday with a nice drove of hogs which he bought in Estill County. —Fred Witt bought the little farm from Harvey Goodman yesterday for $1,000. —Christmas passed off quietly here, and everyone seemed to have a good time; no whisky at all for the boys to use, for which we are glad. —Willie Gross will return next week to the oil fields, where he will work this winter.

CLAY COUNTY

Malcom

Malcom, Jan. 3.—Mrs. W. M. McDaniel is very ill at present. —Mrs. Rebecca Browning is also very poorly. —Mr. and Mrs. Felix York, of Berea, spent last week visiting friends and relatives at this place. —G. W. Downey, who is attending school at Berea, and Victor Browning, who is attending school at Annville, spent Saturday night with J. L. Pennington. —The Rev. J. H. Browning attended church at Cornett's chapel Saturday and Sunday. —Arthur Anderson and sister, Mrs. Ethel Robinson, of Danville, Ill., spent the holidays visiting friends and relatives at this place. —Arthur Anderson and Miss Mollie Thompson, of Burning Springs, were quietly married at the home of the bride, Christmas Day. We wish this happy couple a long and prosperous life in their new home in Illinois. —J. L. Pennington is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. H. Creech of Nina, this week. —The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Chestnut, who has undergone a serious operation at the Robinson Hospital at Berea, is reported to be improving nicely, and will be expected home within two weeks.

OWSLEY COUNTY

Island City

Island City, Jan. 4.—We are glad to welcome another New Year Day. We hope The Citizen family will have many additions during the year. —We have had some strange looking frosts which have attracted the attention of old people. —Charles Robinson and wife and sister-in-law, Miss Retta Gentry, have gone to Wyoming. Mr. Robinson bought the Bob Metcalf farm; his father-in-law, Frank Gentry, will take possession of the farm. —Mrs. Rosa B. Moore has joined The Citizen family again by sending her subscription. —Miss Grova Bowman has been very ill with pneumonia fever, but is now improving. Dr. Hornsby is the attending physician. —Emily Peters, wife of Henry Peters, is said to be low with tuberculosis. —W. T. Bowman has returned to Kelleyville, Okla., after a stay with friends and relatives for a few weeks. —Henry St. John has moved on the D. B. Peter's land, and Caleb Browning is occupying the St. John house. —Fred G. Peters bought the J. S. Lane farm for $1,500. —Married, Joe Farmer of Blake to Miss Lona Gentry of Blake; Chester Allen of Sexton Creek to Miss Lucy Becknell of Island City. —Mrs. Laura Bowman, wife of R. H. Bowman of Sexton Creek, is in poor health. —The death of Clay Brewer, who died recently with pneumonia fever, was very unexpected to many of his friends. He leaves a wife and six children. Mr. Brewer was laid away on his farm.

Seoville

Seoville, Jan. 2.—Rev. Stump filled his regular appointment at Clifty, Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night. He was assisted by Rev. Wm. Marcum, of Vincent. —Miss Effie Thomas, of Levi, spent Christmas at the home of her uncle, J. W. Rowland. —Miss Fannie Flannery returned home from E. K. S. N. for the holidays. —Mr. and Mrs. Nick Crawford, of Linnett, spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Judd. —Dillard Bond, of Dayton, Ohio, spent Christmas with home folks. —Sanford Rowland shipped his tobacco to Lexington yesterday. —Charlie Peters was called to see his father, John Peters, of Major, who is very low with paralysis. —Luther Morgan, County Agent of Breathitt and Perry Counties, was the guest of Clayton Rowland, Saturday. —James Wyatt, who was seriously burned on the face and hands in the oil fields, is about well. —Misses Trissie and Martha Ross spent Christmas at the home of Rev. Spenser of Meadow Creek.

ESTILL COUNTY

Locust Branch

Locust Branch, Dec. 29.—The people of this place are all about thru with their tobacco. Sales were good. —We are having some bad weather at present. —Clark Johnson and family have moved back to this place again. —Misses Eula and Gladia Patrick, daughters of J. W. Patrick, of Knob Lick, were married Christmas day to Walker Richardson and Noah Powell, of Panola, Ky. They all will make their future homes at Panola. —Mrs. Wick Kindred is very sick at this writing. —Bob Bingham is very sick with bronchitis. —Mrs. B. Powell is sick at this writing. —Mrs. Bessie Powell and baby are no better at this writing. —Ross Bingham has moved to the C. W. Logsdon place. —Mrs. Hattie Linn visited her mother of this place last week for a few days. —A. H. Alcorn has moved to the J. W. Richardson property at Vogel. —Willie Chrisman, of Knob Lick, gave the young folks a party at his home, Saturday night.

Iron Mound

Iron Mound, Dec. 29.—The second snow of the season is with us now. —W. F. Stone, of Wapella, Ill., is visiting his father-in-law, J. W. Sparks, at this place. —Ethel and Leonard Fielder, of Berea, are spending the holidays with home folks. —Rev. W. J. Peel, of Nicholasville, filled his regular appointment at Corinth, Sunday. —Several of the girls from here are going to Berea for the Winter Term. —Luther Harris sold a bunch of shoats to Henry Pearson at 11 cents. —Gooch Conley is making his first visit to his sister, Mrs. J. S. Vaughn, of this place, since he returned from overseas. —Robert Palmer and family visited Mrs. Palmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn, of Irvine, during the holidays. —As the old year is about gone and the new one soon to be with us, let's try to do better and live more for Christ than we have in the past. —We wish the readers of The Citizen a Happy New Year.

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY

Conway

Conway, Dec. 30.—We are having some very cold weather at present. —Thomas Bailey, of Ohio, and A. J. Bailey, of Tennessee, who have been visiting their brother, J. M. Bailey, of this place, have returned to their homes. —Mrs. Gertrude Rice is visiting relatives in Ohio at present. —Willie Schumaker, a Berea student, is spending his Christmas vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Schumaker. —Mrs. Mary E. Wynn spent Christmas with her son, W. E. Wynn. —W. E. Wynn had a sale last Friday. He is going to move to his farm in Indiana in a few days. —Mrs. Arthur Rice has returned home from Harlan, where she was called to see her mother, Mrs. Ball. But her mother died before she got there. —Everett Bailey, who is in school at Barboursville, is spending his vacation at home. —Married at the home of W. E. Wynn, on December 24th, Miss Fannie Wynn to Mr. Albert Miracle, son of our merchant, J. C. Miracle. We wish them a long and happy life. —As the old year is drawing to a close, and the New Year approaching, we wish The Citizen and its many readers a happy and prosperous New Year.

GARRARD COUNTY

Bryantsville

Bryantsville, Jan. 5.—Miss Margaret Croushorn returned to Berea College last Wednesday, after spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Francis Croushorn. —Mrs. B. H. Holcomb and Miss Mary Belle Holcomb had as their guests Sunday, Bob Holcomb and Miss Lillian Glass, of Wilmore, and Edwin Wylie, of this place. —Monroe Montgomery is very low with pneumonia. —G. W. Coulter, of Rossmoyne, has purchased the Dr. Ellett farm and will move his family here soon. —Misses Myrtle and Mattie Campbell, who have been in Indianapolis, Ind., have returned home. —Miss Martha Curtis, who was operated on for appendicitis at the St. Joseph Hospital, Lexington, is expected home soon. —Calvin Hullett is moving today to the "Mullikin farm." Mr. Mullikin will move to Madison county. —Mrs. Rhoda Wylie and Earl Wylie, who have been very sick last week with flu, are some better. —Miss Christine Swope, of Lancaster, spent the holdays with her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Swope, of this place. —Jack Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams, had the misfortune of getting shot in the leg with a twenty-two rifle by Robert Lee Montgomery, one of his little playmates. —Mrs. Florence Ballard is making an extended visit in Oklahoma. —Hamilton Montgomery left last Tuesday for Berea College, where he will enter school.

Paint Lick

Paint Lick, Jan. 5.—The school opened Monday morning, having had two weeks' vacation. —Jim Metcalf, of Stanford, was here surveying Monday. —James Harvey Ralston left Saturday to resume his work in Virginia. —Mrs. C. A. Van Winkle and children are spending several days with her sister, Mrs. W. W. West. —Miss Susie Robinson and Mr. Fred Shockley were married last Tuesday. Their many friends extend best wishes to this young couple.

Paint Lick

Paint Lick, Dec. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. John Pennington entertained a number of their friends to an elaborate dinner Christmas day. —Mr. and Mrs. Millard Loford had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wynn, Mr. and Mrs. U. M. Burgess and Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Shepherd. —Dwight Moody, of Kingston, is visiting relatives here. —Frank Ralston brought his bride in home Saturday. Mrs. Ralston was Miss Eva Scott, formerly of this county, but had been making her home in Cincinnati for several years. Mr. and Mrs. Ralston will live in the house by the White Hall school.

Harmony

Harmony, Jan. 5.—John Longworth died last week; he was 79 years old; was a Civil War veteran, also a member of Good Hope Baptist Church. His funeral was preached by the Rev. A. C. Baird and W. M. C. Hutchins. —This is moving time here now. —W. P. Hubbard is moving to Mercer County. We hate to give Mr. Hubbard up. —Henry Tankersley is moving to the place that he purchased from Mr. Hubbard, and we welcome him in our neighborhood. —Mrs. Lunda Ballard has moved to Frank Thompson's place on the Crab Orchard and Lancaster pike. —Sam Ballard has moved to the Judge Ballard place. —Ed. Hubbard, Jr.'s wife is very low at this writing and is not expected to live. —Ed Johnson bought out Jude Bussey's woods and fixtures at Crab Orchard and is putting up a store at Stringtown. —Laudon Hopkins has sold his farm to Joe Saylor for $2,000, and has bought a $10,000 farm in Ohio, just out a few miles from Cincinnati. —Bro. Hopkins is a good man, and we hate to give him up. —There is considerable sickness in this neighborhood. —Miss Fannie McQuerry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buck McQuerry, and John Stennett, a young farmer, were married last week. We wish success and happiness thru life. —Mrs. Josh Jones is still on the sick list.

MADISON COUNTY

Blue Lick

Blue Lick, Jan. 5.—Extreme cold, with several inches of snow. —The conclusion is unanimous that this is by far the coldest day of the winter. —Tobacco growers who have not yet sold their crops are very much discouraged at the slump in prices; consequently a large amount is yet unsold and unstripped waiting for better markets and more favorable weather. —G. C. Flannery, who has been spending his vacation with home folks, returned to Urbana, Ill., where he is taking a master's degree in Agriculture at the University of Illinois. —John W. Flannery is leaving today for Greensboro, N. C., where he is managing a dairy for the Seittle Dairy Co. —A saw-mill will soon be stationed in this section and the owners of timber are preparing to have it sawed. —Several new barns and dwelling houses will be erected in this section. —On account of the inclement weather the Sunday-school at this place is not attended by many children. The faithful teachers from Berea deserve great credit for their untiring efforts, and we trust that, with the approach of spring, there may be an increase in interest and attendance, and the people will respond to their noble and worthy appeals. —Miss Eva Harris, of Nicholasville, is visiting her parents at this place. —Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell are visiting home folks at Kerby Knob.

Kingston

Kingston, Dec. 29.—Christmas passed off very quietly, nothing very interesting, except a Christmas tree given for a few neighbor children by Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton. After the crowd had gathered, about dark Santa entered with a large pack on his back. The tree was nicely decorated and lit up. Each child received a nice little present, a sack of candy and fruits. After the presents were distributed games were played, all were treated to fruit and cake. The evening was much enjoyed; only wish that Christmas would come oftener. —George Hamilton, of Mississippi, is visiting his brothers, Arch and Luther. —Mrs. Mary Hill's mother and father of Wallacetown, brother and wife, of Illinois, spent Christmas with her. —Mrs. Dick Golden and children spent Christmas with her father at Big Hill. —Bill Powell, of Jackson county, has bought the farm where Lawrence Powell now lives, and will move to it. —Lawrence Powell is moving to the house where Luther Hamilton now lives. —Luther Hamilton has bought the Smith property and will move to it. —Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hamilton moved to Berea Christmas day and took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mainous. —Friends of Miss Callie Woods were very much shocked and grieved to hear of her death Saturday afternoon. Burial took place in the Richmond cemetery.

Panola

Panola, Jan. 6.—Winter has come, with the New Year, with a vengeance; most of us are thankful that we do not have to depend upon the coal man for relief from his chilly blasts. —J. B. Wilson, one of our very obliging merchants, has purchased the Sant Tucker farm, adjoining his Panola holdings, for $60 per acre. It is quite a bargain, as there is an orchard of 400 fruit trees just coming into bearing. Mr. Tucker will leave in a few days for Salina, Kansas, where he formerly lived. —Mrs. Orby Bicknell and children have gone to Middletown, Ohio, to visit Mrs. Bicknell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grate Robinson. —Ewell Bicknell, Oscar Campbell, and Earl Gentry, of Locust Branch, left last week to attend Berea College. —Many of our tobacco men who have not yet sold their tobacco are rather blue over the sharp decline in prices on the Richmond markets.

Panola

Panola, Dec. 30.—Martha Carr, accompanied her brother, John Carr, of Middletown, Ohio, home for the holidays. —Mrs. Dr. Snowden, of Ravenna, spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Bicknell. —Henry Chrisman, of Wayneville, Illinois, is visiting relatives here. —Evan ("Jack") Wilson, telegraph operator at Fleming, and Miss Merle Wilson, of E.K.S.N., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilson. —Neighbors and friends regret to hear that Mrs. Ellen Kindred, wife of John Kindred, formerly of Locust Branch, but for a number of years resident of Minier, Illinois, has had a stroke of paralysis and is not expected to live. —Wickliffe Kindred still continues very ill. —Luther L. Powell, son of Granville Powell, who belonged to the 60th Regulars that saw much hard service overseas, returned to Camp Gordon yesterday from a month's furlough spent with relatives near Vogel. —A double wedding took place at the home of J. W. Patrick near Vogel on Christmas day. His daughter, Eula, was married to Noah Powell, son of Walter Powell, and his daughter, Gladia, to Walker Richardson, son of Bailey Richardson. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Richardson. —Shelton White, of Fayette county, near Lexington, spent Christmas with his brother-in-law, Wilgus Hunter. —There is yet quite a lot of tobacco remaining in this locality. The farmers are taking advantage of every pretty day, stripping and getting it ready for market. —Christmas passed off very quietly at this place. —Mrs. Mary Walton, of Noland, visited friends in this section Saturday and Sunday. —Miss Hester Walton and Bertha Crow visited their aunt, near Richmond, during Christmas holidays. —Lucy Cole and children spent Christmas with her mother and other relatives near Noland. —Several of this place attended the sale of James Richardson of near Witt. —Bailey Wilson and family are visiting friends on Red Lick this week.

Coyle

Coyle, Dec. 29.—Christmas passed off very quietly in this vicinity. —Mr. and Mrs. Edward Berry, of Ohio, are visiting Mrs. Berry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pal Powell. —Dewey Powell and Zana Dozier were quietly married a few days ago. —W. S. Todd and family have moved to their home near the Red house. —Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Lake gave the young folks a party Friday night. There were twenty present, and all report a nice time. —Mrs. Jiles Hunter of Vogel visited her daughter, Mrs. Horace Cox, a few days last week. —Miss Gertrude Lake is on the sick list. —Henry Simpson has sold his farm to Tom Cluck for $7,625. He will go to Ohio the first of March, where he will make his future home. —Willie Oglesby has moved below Richmond, and Parkey Denny has moved into the house vacated by Mr. Oglesby. —Mr. and Mrs. John Glossip and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Powell, of Rogersville, Sunday. —Russell Todd spent Christmas vacation with home folks. —Elgin Lake, of Drowning Creek, visited home folks Friday night. —Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Cox visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Bates, Sunday. —Henry Bishop is moving to his new home near Richmond, and Mr. Warford will move to where Mr. Bishop is moving from. —Miss Dora and Nellie Burns, of Berea, and Mrs. Juann Gabbard spent last week with Mrs. George Bishop. They returned to their home Saturday. —Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, of Brassfield, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Todd, Christmas day. —Mr. and Mrs. Arch Murry visited Mrs. Murry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Todd, Friday. —Miss Callie Woods died Saturday evening with consumption. Funeral services will be held at the home of John Green today.

(Continued on Page Four)

JOHN WHITE & CO.
LOUISVILLE, KY.
Established in 1837

Liberal assortment
and full value paid
for FURS

a Sure
fattener~

TUXEDO HOG RATION

UNTIL you feed Tuxedo Hog Ration you cannot know how cheaply pork can be developed. Tuxedo is a quick fattener—a never-failing producer of live, sturdy, good looking hogs. The formula is compounded along lines suggested by a prominent State Experiment Station Official.

Note of what Tuxedo Hog Ration is made, and you will understand why it is so very nutritious: Digester Tankage, Corn Meal, Ground Barley, Ground Oats, Wheat Middlings, Old Process Oil Meal, Gluten Feed, Alfalfa Meal.

This balanced mixture is sweetened with Cane Molasses.

ANALYSIS: PROTEIN 14.5%; FIBRE 7%; CARBOHYDRATES 55%; FAT 3.5%

Made by the Manufacturers of Tuxedo Chop, Ce-re-a-lia Sweets, Tuxedo Scratch, Ce-re-a-lia Egg Mash

See Your Nearest Dealer

FOR SALE BY

S. E. WELCH, Berea, Kentucky

MULLENS & PRICE, Livingston, Kentucky

J. W. RIDER, Mt. Vernon Kentucky

No More War Flour Potts' GOLD DUST Flour

Returns to its before-the-war
high standard of quality

Once Tried - - - Always Used